Dearly Beloved,

This week marks the beginning of the Christian "Holy Week".

The Holy Week is to remember the betrayal, sufferings, crucifixion, death, burial and resurrection of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

To commemorate this week, which is sacred and important for our faith, we will holding a holy convocation starting on Wednesday through to Friday. Scroll to the next page to see the details.

I enjoin you to participate fully in order to be a full partaker of the knowledge and grace that will be imparted in this holy convocation.

May the power of resurrection be clearly demonstrated in your life and in all that concerns you in Jesus name.

Nnaemeka O. Ikemefuna
Senior Pastor

Sunday Summary:

UNBOXED: REDISCOVERING RIGHTEOUSNESS

Righteousness is like salt; it makes us different and delivers us from death. In the beginning, God created man in His likeness, imbued with righteousness as an inherent quality. However, upon his fall, man forfeited that innate righteousness (Genesis 3:1-24). Four consequences ensued as a result of man's transgression:

1. Accusation. 2. Condemnation. 3. Guilt. 4. Estrangement from God.

Throughout history, these four outcomes have persisted in the lives of individuals who sin against God.

All that man ever required was available in the Garden of Eden, symbolising righteousness. Just as everything essential was found within Eden, righteousness is now embodied in a person—Jesus Christ. In Christ, we possess all that we need.

Whenever we sin, our conscience condemns us. If we persist in this state, our ability to have faith in God is hindered. God interacts with us in the realm of faith, not condemnation. Proverbs 28:13 teaches that concealing our sins prevents us from receiving mercy. We must acknowledge our wrongdoings and repent when we're convicted of sin.

In response to humanity's struggle with condemnation due to sin and to buy us back to Himself, God deployed our Lord Jesus as His redemption plan. (Proverbs 4:20-23). Therefore, God sent His Son to die for the world (John 3:16), enabling the complete removal of our sins, not just their concealment (2 Corinthians 5:17). Hebrews 10:19 illustrates how the blood of Jesus cleanses our conscience from the guilt of sin, removing condemnation.

Testimonies

I thank God for His intervention and favour at my workplace; for helping me resolve an issue that I pursued for 2 years and for defending me.

I also thank God for delivering my sister from what could have been a fatal accident. Praise God!
Sis Ozioma

I thank God for financial breakthrough. The money I had been owed for some time was eventually paid.

In addition, I thank God for delivering me from scammers and for restoring my breath when I struggled to breathe at some point. Praise God!

Daily Devotional

The thoughts and plans of God for your life will always be better than whatever you can imagine or wish. "For I know the plans and thoughts that I have for you, says the Lord, plans for peace and well-being and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope" (Jeremiah 29:11 AMP).

If you had asked Joseph to write down his prayer or plans when he was in prison, it would probably have been that he return to his father's house. That was what he told the butler when the latter was returning to the palace. (Genesis 40:12-15).

However, God's plan was far beyond human imagination. Joseph ended up as Egypt's Prime Minister. Jehu's ambition might have been to end up as Israel's top army commander. But God had mentioned his name to Elijah as the next king of Israel.

The morning he was anointed as a king started as a normal day but before it ended, Jehu was king. (2 Kings 9:1-13). Thank God for your plans, but God has something far better in store for you. Flow with it.

Declaration: In this new week, you will receive surprise packages and experience sudden promotions. The good prophecies spoken over you will find full expressions in your life in Jesus name.
