Dearlly Beloved,

Glad you can join us again this week.

As today marks the end of March and the first quarter of 2024, my Father and my God, once again, I want to thank You for everything You did for us in January, February, and March. Please accept our thanks in Jesus' Name.

As we enter a new month, remember to reflect on all the messages you have heard. In addition, try to brush up on the two books we have read thus far (How to be Led by the Holy Spirit by Kenneth Hagin and The Baith of Satan by John Beverer).

There is also the free resource HERMON DEVOTIONAL. It will enrich you with godly wisdom and inspiration to face and conquer each day. The link to the daily devotionals is also on the next page.

In this new week, God bless and keep you in all your endeavours in Jesus' name.

Sunday Summary:

LET THE REDEEMED OF THE LORD SAY SO

When God created man, He elevated him to a significant position. However, when man sinned, he fell from this lofty place and surrendered his authority to Satan. Despite Adam's initial transgression, all of us, being his descendants, inherited this sinful nature. Hence, God undertook the task of redeeming mankind from the bondage of sin, which culminated in the redemption through the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ.

The system of redemption was established among the Israelites during Moses' time, as detailed in Leviticus 25:47-49. Hebrews 2:14-15 highlights the immense price Jesus paid for our redemption. Therefore, it is crucial for us, the redeemed, to vocalize and uphold what we have received, lest we risk losing it.

In Mark 11:22, Jesus taught the power of faith in God and the significance of speaking without doubt. Psalm 107:3 emphasizes the importance of verbal affirmation. As believers, it is incumbent upon us to consistently proclaim the Word of God wherever we go, as silence toward any issue leads to its demise.

There are four compelling reasons why we must continually speak the Word of God: First, God created man as a speaking spirit (Genesis 2:7). Second, God has ordained us as kings, empowering us to enforce change through speech (Ecclesiastes 8:4). Third, the tongue holds the power of life and death (Proverbs 18:21). Lastly, our words justify our actions (Matthew 12:37).

However, speaking with doubt diminishes effectiveness. True belief originates in the spirit, founded on personal revelations from God. Signs of God's communication include righteousness, peace, and joy in our hearts (Psalm 85:8; Psalm 12:3). Once peace and joy are established, we can confidently speak forth.

In conclusion, let us remember that our words hold immense power, and by speaking in alignment with God's truth, we enact positive changes in our lives and surroundings (Romans 10:10).

Testimonies

I thank God because He has answered some of my prayer requests, which I wrote down by the instructions of Pastor. I have grown spiritually and I got a new phone from a lady I barely know without asking her for it.

Bro Daniel

I thank God for causing my sister's surgery to be successful and for helping me at work. I was able to do a presentation confidently before a board which I was initially nervous about. I also thank God for His intervention in our light situation. What would have cost us to get for a lot of money He rectified for free.

Sis Ozioma

I have so many testimonies, but I want to thank God for His protection over me. I almost collided with a moving vehicle, but God delivered me. I also want to thank God for blessing me financially and confirming the words of His servant in my life. I gave an offering that cost me a lot, but God rewarded me, and I am reaping the benefits even now. Praise God!

Daily Devotional

Man's help is good and has its place, but it can never be compared to God's help.

When God helps you, you will be helped. And God is ever present at all times to help, especially in the time of trouble. "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" (Psalm 46:1 KJV).

If you are in any trouble, seek help from God. How do you do that, you may ask? "And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver you, and you shall glorify my name" (Psalm 50:15 KJV).

Call out to God in prayer in the day of trouble. God has promised to deliver you, and He will. When God delivers, He delivers completely. But remember to return the glory to Him when He has delivered you.

BOOK OF THE MONTH SUMMARY

The Bait of Satan: John Bevere

It is all about escaping the enemy's deadly trap! The Bait of Satan exposes one of the most deceptive snares Satan uses to get believers out of the will of God – offence.

Most people who are ensnared by the bait of Satan don't even realize it.

Regardless of who you are or your status, you will encounter offence, and it's up to you how it will affect your relationship with God. Your response will determine your future. If offence is handled correctly, you will become stronger rather than bitter.

In this best-selling book, John Bevere shows you how to stay free from offence and escape the victim mentality.

You will find answers to tough questions like these:

- Why am I compelled to tell "my side" of the story?
- How can I fight thoughts of suspicion or distrust?
- What can I do to stop rehearsing past hurts?
- How can I regain trust after someone deeply offends me?

This book will help you escape the enemy's "offensive trap" as well as empower you to stay free of offence, enabling you to have an unhindered relationship with God.
