Dearly Beloved,

Welcome to our month of 'SUPERNATURAL LEAPS'

I am happy you made it back this week.

So far in this month, we have been taking a deeper look at 'Supernatural Leaps' what it means and how that applies to our everyday living.

To Leap, we must have sight and mobility. Blindness is darkness and ignorance while lameness is immobility. Blindness must be healed for the light of God's Word to enter. To have speed, you must have light.

In this new week, may your eyes of understanding be enlightened and let every form of lameness in your life be healed in Jesus name.

Receive the speed to catch up, overtake and recover this month in the name of Jesus.

Sunday Service Summary: Taking Supernatural Leaps February 11, 2024

The Bible recounts Jesus expelling money lenders from the temple, declaring it a place of prayer, not theft. Following this, the blind and lame sought healing from Him.

This story holds implications for us today, suggesting that spiritual blindness and lameness hinder supernatural progress. There are three essential levels of perception: Seeing to understand, Seeing to possess, and seeing into the spirit realm.

Abraham exemplifies perceiving to possess, walking the land he was promised. Similarly, Elisha's servant gained spiritual sight to perceive angelic protection. Jesus also healed the lame, symbolizing the need to act upon spiritual insight. Just as God instructed Abraham and Joshua to physically possess their promised lands, spiritual insight demands active engagement.

Four categories of people require supernatural intervention: those with inherent limitations, those facing insurmountable challenges, those in peril or danger, and those pressed for time.

One effective method to achieve this supernatural advancement is through prayer. Therefore, if you seek insight into God's guidance concerning yourself or your circumstances, or if you require healing for any spiritual stagnation, you may be encountering, allocate time to commune with God in prayer today and throughout the week.

I want to thank God for journey mercies He grants me every time I travel. I also thank God for rectifying the issue with my passport and bringing it safely to me. Finally, I thank God for surprising me with financial blessings I did not expect at all.

Daily Devotional

It is not what you know but what you do with what you know that makes all the difference. Knowledge, alone by itself, will only puff you up. (1 Corinthians 8:1). Just like a balloon, anything puffed up will burst at the faintest contact with a pin. You don't want your life to be like that.

The Word of God explicitly stated that knowledge, not wisdom, will increase in the last days. (Daniel 12:4) But an increase in knowledge does not automatically translate to an increase in wisdom. This is because there is a huge difference between knowledge and wisdom.

Where there is only knowledge without wisdom, there will be a lot of running to and fro, activities without productivity, motions without movement. A balloon is always roving 'to and fro' with every slight breeze and wind of doctrine. It has neither weight nor defined direction. And no 'to and fro' person has ever received anything from God. (James 1:5-8).

Word: God wants you to be stable because nothing grows until it is stable (planted). It is wisdom that gives stability, weight, and direction. (Isaiah 33:6). If you will settle down and convert the knowledge you already have into decisions and habits, you will experience divine momentum and powerful leaps this year. This is wisdom. Let this not just be another year of acquiring knowledge. And doing to it. Wisdom does.

Mid-Week Sermon Summary

IN LEAPS AND IN BOUNDS

2 Peter 1:8-9

Whenever God does something, He wants it to get better and better. Proverbs 4:18. What differentiates the righteous from the wicked is the light of God. Proverbs 4:19. John 9:1-7. Blind people are unable to live which is why God wants us to see clearly to experience divine leaps. Isaiah 59:10. When we don't see, we Stumble, Fall, get Broken, become Snared and finally, get Taken.

4 Principles for Divine Speed:

1) See Clearly: stumbling causes your faith to waver so you can't receive anything from God. James 1:5-8.

2) Seeing Far: regardless of your situation or circumstance, you can still look up and see far. It is what you see that God confirms. Proverbs 22:3, 27:12. 2 Kings 6:17.

3) Forgetfulness: this leads to ingratitude. James 1:22-25. Deuteronomy 8:16-18. The Word of God is in 2 parts – HEARING and DOING. You can only do the Word of God you remember. Psalm 9:17.

4) Particular Paths to Walk: the only path that leads to Spiritual Leaps is HOLINESS – it is an expressway without holdups or traffic. Hebrews 12:12-13. Isaiah 35:8. Matthew 7:13-14.
