Dearlly Beloved,

Glad you can join us again this week.

Praise God, we are starting the second quarter of the year with good health, a sound mind, and lots of testimonies of God's faithfulness in the first quarter. His mercies were there for us at all times, and nothing could dim His glory upon us and the church of God. Even when the enemy came like a flood, the spirit of God raised a standard against him (Isaiah 59:19).

To this end, I heartily congratulate you on completing the first quarter of this year successfully.

As you start the second quarter in this year of Greater Works, the glory of this quarter will be greater than the first quarter in Jesus' name.

Have a glorious week!

SUNDAY SERVICE SUMMARY: HE IS RISEN!

The passing of our Lord Jesus has unlocked a multitude of benefits for us. His demise and subsequent resurrection illustrate two significant truths:

1. God's Wisdom (1 Corinthians 1:25, Colossians 2:14 – 15):
At times, God's plans may seem foolish to human understanding. Scripture emphasizes that divine wisdom surpasses human intellect. The devil influenced Judas, the religious leaders, and many others to crucify Jesus, believing it would thwart His mission. However, unbeknownst to him, this action perfectly aligned with God's plan to atone for our sins, offering salvation to all.

Similarly, in our lives, we may encounter circumstances that appear perplexing, yet Jesus' death and resurrection remind us of God's sovereignty. Even when His instructions seem unconventional, we must trust in His omniscience and supreme authority.

2. The Resurrection Power (Romans 8:11-15):
God raised Jesus from the dead on the third day after His crucifixion, showcasing His ability to resurrect the dead. One of the fundamental aspects of being a true disciple of Christ is dying to oneself. Without this spiritual death, we cannot experience the transformative power of God's resurrection. Sometimes, our prayers for deliverance may not align with God's plan. Similar to Jesus' ordeal, God may lead us through trials to demonstrate His resurrection power. Consider if God had spared Jesus from crucifixion at the hands of religious leaders and others—salvation would not have been possible.

Therefore, how do we allow ourselves to die? It is by fully and wholeheartedly surrendering to God's will, just as Jesus did. Only then can we encounter His resurrection power.

Testimonies

I made a promise to God to thank Him at the end of every academic session. So, I have come to thank God for my children and how He made this past term successful for them. I also want to bless God for helping me conquer my fear of driving and for financial increase.

Sis Shola

I bless God immensely for a financial increase. I have never experienced this level of increase since I began my business. Praise God!

Bro. Chuks

We bless God because we have officially celebrated one year of marriage. God has made our marriage full of peace, joy, and bliss, and we are profusely grateful to Him. We are also thankful to God for adding another year to my husband's life. God be praised!

Daily Devotional

As long as you are alive, never lose hope for a better tomorrow. Hope is powerful. It is the confident expectation that tomorrow will be better than today, no matter how bleak and empty today looks.

What kept Job through the darkest nights of his life was hope, the expectation that this, too, shall pass. If you lose everything you have and still have hope, things will surely turn around for you.

This was why Job said, "For there is hope of a tree if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease" (Job 14:7 KJV).

If a tree that has been cut down has a hope to grow again, so should you. It does not matter how long you have been cut down or what was cut down in your life; it will grow again if you don't lose hope.

Please don't give up. Maintain your confidence that what is coming is better and bigger and that you will blossom again.

Declaration: This week, your expectations will not be cut off. Whatever has been buried or cut down in your life sprouts again and begins to blossom in Jesus' name, Amen.

MIDWEEK SERVICE SUMMARY: ENGAGING THE LAW OF RESURRECTION FOR A CHANGE OF LEVEL

As Jesus's impending departure drew near, a significant event occurred. Despite His ministry primarily focusing on the Jewish community, some Greeks sought an audience with Him. However, Jesus responded by declaring that the time had come for the Son of Man to be glorified (John 12:20-25). He then imparted a profound statement that unveils the principle of resurrection: "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain." (John 12:24).

In this context, death symbolizes surrendering our will, passions, desires, and aspirations to God—yielding complete control of our lives to Him. Jesus epitomized this surrender, living solely to fulfil God's will. Resurrection necessitates death. Throughout the Bible, numerous individuals underwent experiences akin to death yet emerged as prominent figures whom God used mightily in their time. Examples include Jacob, Joseph, Moses, and Ruth, among others. Despite facing perplexing circumstances, they surrendered to God's will and were ultimately glorified by Him.

Let us remember that the scriptures serve as lessons for our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we can emulate Jesus's example by surrendering entirely to God. It's crucial to recognize that resurrection is unattainable without death.
