Dearlly Beloved,

We come to the end of the first half of the year today! What a half it has been! And we give God all the glory for all He did in the last six months.

If you are alive, it is more than enough reason to thank God. Maybe things have not worked out as you planned, thank God still. Or it may even be that things went south for you, thank God also.

Thanksgiving is a supernatural master key that has the ability to turn around hopeless situations. Thanksgiving makes things better. Moreover, it is what you thank God for that He multiplies.

Our RESET PRAYER & FASTING is throughout this week, starting on Monday through Sunday (6am to 6pm). Daily prayer points for each prayer watch are available on our all our social media handles.

Every day from Monday to Friday, we will be praying together online by 6pm (WAT) to close the fast. Endeavor to participate fully because it is our set time of divine visitation and acceleration.

Sunday is our Anniversary Celebration & Thanksgiving service. Do well to attend also.

SUNDAY SERVICE SUMMARY: How to Pray Prayers that Do Not Return Unanswered!!

If you don't have enough oil, you will not be able to stand during the night season. This means that if you do not have enough knowledge of the Word when the storms of life come, because they surely will, you might not be able to stand.

What kind of prayers never go unanswered?

- Prayers according to God's Word (1 John 5:14-15).
- Prayers according to God's counsel. This could come from His messengers (Isaiah 44:26).
- Prayers according to God's promises to you (Isaiah 55:9-11).
- The prayer of faith

How can we pray prayers that don't go unanswered? (James 5:16-17):

- God delights in the prayers of a righteous person (Proverbs 15:8). For our prayers to be heard, we must be born again and value God's gift of righteousness.
- We must confess our faults to one another. If we knowingly or unknowingly offend people, our prayers won't be heard until we confess our faults to one another.
- We can pray and get results by praying based on God's Word (1 Kings 17:1).
- Our prayers must be fervent. When we desire something, it shows how we ask for it.

So, how can we be persistent in prayers?

1. We must pray without ceasing (1 Thessalonians 5:17)
2. Pray with desire (Psalm 37:4, Mark 2:1-5)
3. Pray with faith (Mark 11:23)
4. Pray with shameless persistence (Isaiah 43:26)

PRAY INTO JULY 2024
SUNDAY, JUNE 30, 2024

MIDWEEK SERVICE SUMMARY: RECEIVING DOUBLE IN PRAYER!!

James 5:12-15 – prayer must be based solely on the Word of God for it to be effective. The Word of God, which is the Seed (Luke 8:11), is perfect. What determines if this seed of the Word of God will produce are (1) the state of your heart and (2) how you nurture the Word in your heart.

7 Ways to Receive Double in Prayer:

- When a thief is caught (Exodus 22:70): When you read and revel in the Word of God, then revelation concerning aspects of your life the enemy has stolen is released so you can use this revelation to pray for double restoration. (Luke 15:8-12, Jeremiah 1:11-12, Revelation 13:14-15).
- Understanding the rights of the first son (Deuteronomy 21:17): If you are in Christ, you are one with him and also a joint heir. Pray with this mindset and understanding. (Exodus 11: 1-3, John 4:34).
- When you have godly desires, especially spiritual gifts (1 Kings 2:9-12, 1 Corinthians 12:1 and 13): You need spiritual gifts to guide all your affairs.
- When you pray for others (friends, pastor, church. Etc.).
- When we go through a season of trials and do not compromise.
- When we keep confessing God's Word in faith.
- When God's servant blesses and prays for us.

RESET FAST

Psalm 116:17

Father, thank you for the first half of the year. For all the things you did for I and my family I say thank you Lord.

Thank you Lord for the second half of the year and all you have prepared for me and my family. I worship you.

Genesis 6:8

Dear Father, I pray that in the remaining months of this year, I will find favor in your eyes as Noah did. In Jesus' name, amen.

Romans 6:13

Father in this second half of the year, I give myself totally to you. Help me to always do what is right in your eyes in Jesus name, Amen.

Daniel 6:28

As Daniel was successful and things went well with him. Dear Lord let this be my testimony and that of my family in Jesus name.

TRUST

"Her husband can trust her..." (Proverbs 31:11). The key word in the scripture is 'trust.'

You would agree that trust is lacking these days because people are not trustworthy. Unfortunately, many marriages also lack trust, which is vital for sustaining any relationship.

But why are we speaking about this for singles since the scripture referred to a married woman? The answer is in last week's article: 1. It is how you are as a single person you'll be when you marry. You do not form good character overnight; it takes time. 2. A woman becomes a wife before she gets married. And this is scriptural (Proverbs 18:22).

The same goes for men. You need to develop the character of being trustworthy to effectively carry out your duties as the head of the home. Women, especially good ones, want to be married to men they can trust. No one wants an untrustworthy person to lead them; no one at all.

Thrive: Fundamentals of Pre-Martial Relationship

So, how can we become trustworthy people? Start by always speaking the truth. If you claim that God is your Father, you should be like Him. The Bible says that God does not lie (Titus 1:2). On the contrary, it is the devil who lies and is the father of all liars (John 8:44).

Why would you be in Ikota and, on a call, tell someone you're in Ajah? "But they're close locations; they're quite close to each other," you argue. The fact is, they might be close, but they're different locations; you lied!

In God, just the way there's no partial obedience, there's no such thing as a partial truth, half-truth or white lie. Speak the truth in the little things, in the seemingly insignificant matters. Speak the truth even when casually hanging out with friends. Let's practice being truthful in all our conversations, and we'll be on the highway of being trustworthy; people others can trust.

Deep Dive: The Business Side of God & About Business

Starting Your Own Business: A Leap of Faith (2)!

Starting a business is a significant undertaking but can also be a profound expression of faith. It's an opportunity to serve your community, create jobs, and demonstrate Christian values in the marketplace. As you move forward, remember to balance ambition with humility and profit with purpose.

Here are some additional steps to consider:

- Ethical Business Practices: Honesty, integrity, and fair treatment of employees and customers are cornerstones of Christian values. Building trust through ethical practices not only reflects your faith but also fosters long-term success.
- Serving Others: Can your business provide a product or service that uplifts others or makes their lives easier? Focus on solutions that benefit your community and align with your beliefs.
- Stewardship and Giving Back: Consider tithing a portion of your profits to support your church or other worthy causes. This demonstrates your commitment to using your business as a force for good.
- Seeking Guidance: Don't be afraid to seek advice from mentors or financial experts within the church community. Their insights can be invaluable as you navigate the challenges of starting a business.

"Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone."— (1 Corinthians 12:4-6 NRS).

Finding Grace: A Weekly Guide to Joyful Motherhood/ Parenting

Hey Super Moms,

As we go into the second part of this year, God has told us it's our season of overflow. We can't glean from the overflow if our posture is not in submission to the Lord Almighty. By strength shall no man (woman) prevail. God's grace has to be available to make every step in this second half easy and beautiful.

So we commence with a Reset Fast, so that like Esther we come before the throne of grace to receive all that we desire emotionally, intellectually, spiritually and in all areas. As you can't pour into your children from an empty cup, you need to overflow fill them.

Receive the grace to persevere in prayer this week to open the heavens over every situation in Jesus name.

Your testimony is here.

Centred: A Roadmap for Couples & Marriage

If you want to have a happily ever after marriage, you must recourse to the Author and Inventor of marriage and to His manual for marriage.

It is foolhardy to think you can fully enjoy a product without reading the manual of that product.

God is the Author and Inventor of marriage and the Bible is His manual for marriage. His principles for marriage are found there.

If you neither regard God nor His word highly, then don't even bother about a happily ever after marriage.

In His Bible are the revelations and principles for building a godly and enjoyable marriage and home. One of such principles is that of hierarchy or order. The order of God for marriage is that the husband is the head, the wife assistant, next the children and then the household.

The head of the home also has a Head - Christ. (1 Corinthians 11:3). If he is not submitted to his head, he will eventually find it difficult to receive submission and honor from his wife, children and household.

That's how it works. That's how the man rules - by submitting to Christ.
