Dearlly Beloved,

Glad you can join us again this week.

Welcome to May, the fifth month in the calendar. The number 5 symbolizes God's grace, goodness and favour toward humans. The word "five" is recorded 345 times in Scripture. Since five represents grace, when it is multiplied by itself, it produces 25, which is 'grace upon grace' (John 1:16). The Ten Commandments contain two sets of 5 commandments. The first five commandments are related to our treatment and relationship with God, with the remaining one concerned with our relationship with other humans.

As you enter this new week, may God's grace be upon you as you make decisions and choices this month. May He grant you wisdom and discernment, in Jesus' name, Amen.

May's glory surpasses January to April's glory.

Have a blessed week!

SUNDAY SERVICE SUMMARY: ENGAGING DIVINE WISDOM IN ADVENTURES WITH GOD

At times, we tend to undervalue things, especially gifts, when we fail to recognize their true worth. The Holy Spirit is the gift that God has bestowed upon us. However, often, due to our mindset, we limit His influence in our lives. Yet, His capabilities far exceed our imagination. In Isaiah 11:2, we find a multitude of roles the Holy Spirit fulfils: He is the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding.

Wisdom brings stability (Isaiah 33:6). Growth and progress are impossible without stability. Therefore, if we find any form of stagnation in our lives, we need the wisdom that comes from God. The Bible describes divine wisdom as inherently pure (James 3:17). Even though we may have a close relationship with the Holy Spirit, He may not reveal everything to us. Sometimes, the answers we seek are already known by others.

Furthermore, the Holy Spirit is also the Spirit of understanding (Proverbs 21:16). Spiritual understanding, as outlined in Colossians 1:9, cannot be taught; it can only be acquired.

Additionally, the Holy Spirit embodies counsel and might. Psalm 112:1-2 illustrates the outcome when a person delights in God's Word. Counsel is the advice obtained through consultation. It is this counsel that empowers individuals. No one who lacks counsel can become or remain mighty.

The Counsel of God represents divine secrets, not readily available information.

Sources of Counsel include:

1. God (Jeremiah 23:18, 22).
2. God's servants (Exodus 18: 13-27).
3. Friends (2 Samuel 16:23, 1 Kings 12:6).
4. Personal reflection (Psalm 13:2).

"God specializes in the business of taking those who are outcasts and making them His objects of mercy, grace, and glory. He loves to qualify the unqualified and use the base things of this world to confound the wise of this world. (1 Corinthians 1:27-28).

If people have written you off and have asked if any good can come out of your Nazareth (John 1:46), surrender to Jesus Christ and see what beauty He will make of your life.

The Samaritan woman was a bad case. Apart from being a Samaritan with whom Jews had no dealings, she was notorious for her many failed marriages. She had gone from one man to another till she was with the sixth man when she met with the Lord Jesus.

She was the least and last person to have been expected to be specially and personally visited by the Lord Jesus. But He did and spent a whole afternoon in theological debates with her. By the time they were done, she was converted and went to evangelize and mobilize the whole town to come, see, and receive the Lord Jesus. (John 4:3-30).

The Lord Jesus made an outcast a shining light. This is the beauty of the gospel.

SHAME TO GLORY

Declaration: In this new week, God will visit you and turn your reproaches to glory. He will write you in where people had cancelled you out. You will receive divine mercy, grace, and glory to stand out in Jesus' name.

MIDWEEK SERVICE SUMMARY:

THE MYSTERIES OF THE LORD'S TABLE

The Lord's Supper, also known as the Lord's Table, is an ordinance given by our Lord Jesus Christ to the Church. It means that whatever is served has been prepared by God. The Lord commands different ordinances, such as water baptism, washing of feet, and baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Observing the Last Supper is remembering Him (John 6:54). When we do this, we do so in faith, believing what Jesus said will happen when we take it. There are several benefits to observing the Lord's Table. Thus, we can expect to be imparted whenever we take the Holy Communion:

Some of these benefits include:

- It imparts the life of God into us (John 6:51-53, Leviticus 17:11).
- Impartation of Content and Fulfillment. (John 6:35, Romans 8:20, 1 Timothy 6:6, Genesis 16:1-16).
- The Holy Communion allows us to Examine Ourselves (1 Corinthians 11:28-31, Psalm 45:7, Proverbs 16:6, 28:13)
- We receive Spiritual Renewal and Refreshing. Because of fear and exhaustion (1 Kings 19:1-21).
- It imparts Divine Healing and Health to us (1 Peter 2:24, Matthew 8:17, 3 John 1:2, Psalm 105:37).
- It Reinforces our Dominion over the Power of Darkness (1 Corinthians 11:26, Colossians 2:10,15).
- God Terrorizes and Shuts up the Mouths of our Enemies (Exodus 11:7).
- It imparts and sharpens a Sound Mind, Spiritual Understanding, and Sensitivity. (Luke 24:30-31,45, Colossians 1:9).
