Dearly Beloved,

Welcome to July and the 2nd half of the year!

It's our season for OVERFLOW! There will be overflow of God's presence, power, wisdom, blessings and goodness in our lives in the name of Jesus!

Last Sunday was remarkable. We concluded the RESET Fast and celebrated the 6th anniversary of our church. It has indeed been 6 years of God's great mercies, grace and faithfulness.

Don't forget the prophetic word in Leviticus 25:21. Proclaim and remind God of that word and it will not return unfulfilled in your life. Also don't stop praying for our church and for me. Your prayers go a long in helping us to do and fulfill all of God's will.

There were almost 90 prayer points prayed in the RESET Fast. Go over them again and pray them through, especially if you are led by the Holy Spirit to do so. Elijah did not stop praying until he saw the abundance of the sound of rain he heard.

In this 2nd half, God will do mighty things in our midst. I enjoin you to position yourself by not missing any service and doing all you hear from the altar. Your overflow starts now in Jesus name!

SUNDAY SERVICE SUMMARY: THE BLESSINGS OF FAITHFULNESS!!

Faithfulness means being consistently consistent. Finding faithful people on earth today is a scarce commodity (Proverbs 20:6, Psalm 12:1, Proverbs 28:20). Whatever you do, if you are not faithful, you will not succeed.

Being faithful is not just about being present or available. It's about being fruitful, about making a difference wherever you are (Luke 13:6-9). It's about leaving a positive mark on every situation and person you encounter.

Several aspects of faithfulness are noteworthy. These include:

- We must be faithful in the little, seemingly insignificant things (Luke 16:10).
- Faithfulness is proof of the fear of God and a perfect heart (2 Chronicles 19:8-9).
- It is proof of honesty and truthfulness (2 Kings 22:4-7).
- We are God's stewards and are expected to be faithful (1 Corinthians 4:2).
- We must be faithful in another man's business if we want our own (Luke 16:12).

There are several blessings associated with faithfulness.

- It brings supernatural promotion (Nehemiah 7:2).
- Faithfulness brings divine preservation (Psalm 31:23, Exodus 34:24).
- Faithfulness draws God's attention towards us (Psalm 101:6).
- It is the basis for supernatural prosperity and divine blessings (Proverbs 28:20).
- It qualifies us to inherit the kingdom of God and for enthronement (Luke 22:28-30).

God can trust no one until they have been tested and found faithful. A test always precedes promotion.

Daily Devotional

Last-minute and unsolicited miracles still happen. You better believe it! They are called eleventh-hour miracles. It is when all hopes of making it are lost, yet God still comes through to exceed expectations.

Eleventh-hour miracles are God's way of announcing to the world that He is still God and still rules in the affairs of men. (Psalm 83:18).

In this parable of the Lord Jesus, the workers hired in the eleventh hour, one hour before the close of business, received what the other workers hired at the beginning of the day. (Matthew 20:1-16). Those workers hired at the eleventh hour must have given up hope for income that day, yet God came through for them.

Have you given up hope or written off this year as bad? God will show you mercy and favour in this second half in Jesus' name.

MIDWEEK SERVICE SUMMARY:

FLOURISHING AT YOUR APPOINTED PLACE!!

There is a 'THERE' for every Believer. It is your 'THERE' that God commands His blessings for you. Wherever God plants you (with an emphasis on the church) is a good land for you, and you'll have opportunities for enlargement there, which will also flow with milk and honey. (Psalm 132:17, 133:3. Exodus 3:8),

To eat and enjoy the good of the land where God has planted you, you must be willing and obedient (Isaiah 1:19). Here are 2 things that stop you from enjoying your planted place (Exodus 33:3): (1). Pride and Stubbornness. (2). Unforgiveness and Disobedience.

3 laws you must keep when you enter your appointed place are:

1.The Law of Connections – there are 3 levels:

- i.Connection to Jesus Christ: Being born again, you cannot be fruitful without Him (Romans 11:17,24. Colossians 2:19. Isaiah 11:10, 11:1. John 15:4-6).
- ii.Connection to your pastor: (Psalm 133:2. 1 Timothy 5:17. John 6:29. 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13. John 10:3-5).
- iii.Connection to members of the church. (Luke 10:1. Matthew 18:19-20. Acts 6:3.). You must live in unity with other believers.

2.The Law of Customs: These are repeated spiritual disciplines that come out of revelation from scriptures. (2 Kings 17:24-28. Numbers 8:8-10. Proverbs 8:17, 34. Exodus 25:40. 2 Corinthians 11:2). Certain patterns are followed here in Hermon – we pray into every new month (Numbers 10:8-10). We also observe personal quiet time with God. As you practice these customs, the grace of God will start to flow in your life (2 Thessalonians 2:15).

3.The Law of Communion. The Christian life can't be lived in isolation; it's dangerous (Jude 1:19. Psalm 68:6. Matthew 18:19. Acts 2:42, 4:23. Daniel 2:1-23. Proverbs 18:24). You must be genuinely yoked in fellowship with church members.

"Her husband can trust her....."
(Proverbs 31: 11).

Thrive: Fundamentals of Pre-Martial Relationship

In our previous discussion, we delved into the profound concept of honesty and its role in fostering trust. We underscored the significance of abstaining from falsehood, for it is a trait of the adversary, and as God's children, we are called to a higher standard of truthfulness. We firmly established that a person's trustworthiness is directly linked to their honesty.

But there is another aspect to building trust and that is being faithful. I'll explain by asking a question. Can people trust you to do a task well without being supervised, especially when it doesn't seem to directly and/or immediately affect or benefit you?

The Bible says that every steward is expected to be faithful (1 Corinthians 4:2). You know what the drill is? Jesus mentioned it in Luke 16:12, "And if you are not faithful with other people's things, why should you be trusted with things of your own?"

Being married is a whole different ball game from being single. The responsibilities increase tremendously. And marriage is really important to God. So, if as a single person you're not responsible in other people's business, why would God want to give you your own? God is a God of abundance but He genuinely hates waste. So what He does is that He puts you in places and with people that'll train you and build your capacity to handle things. If you don't submit yourself to those people and trainings now as one who's yet to be married, honestly you are training yourself for trouble when you're married.

Remember that we have stated that it is how you are as a single person that you will remain when you are married. So, if there are areas in your life now that you know you aren't faithful in, ask the Holy Spirit to help you; He is our Helper. But make sure to submit to Him by obeying Him when He gives you instructions.

The Business Side of God &
About Business

Starting Your Own Business: A Leap of Faith (3)!

Integrating Faith and Business: Consider how your faith can inform business practices. This might include:

- Ethical decision-making in all aspects of your operations
- Fair treatment of employees and customers
- Giving back to the community or supporting missions
- Being transparent and honest in your dealings

Overcoming Challenges: Starting a business often involves facing obstacles. Discuss how faith can provide strength during difficult times:

- Using prayer and meditation to manage stress.
- Finding courage in biblical examples of perseverance.
- Leaning on your church community for support.
- Viewing setbacks as opportunities for growth and learning.

Balancing Work and Life: Address the importance of maintaining a healthy work-life balance:

- Setting boundaries to protect family time and spiritual practices.
- Avoiding the temptation to let work become an idol.
- Remembering the Sabbath and taking time for rest and renewal.

Financial Stewardship: Emphasize responsible financial management:

- Creating a budget that aligns with your values.
- Being cautious about taking on debt.
- Consider tithing or charitable giving as part of your business model.
- Seeking advice from financially savvy church members or faith-based financial advisors.

Networking within the Faith Community: Highlight opportunities for connection and collaboration:

- Joining Christian business associations.
- Attending faith-based entrepreneurship conferences.
- Partnering with other businesses run by church members.
- Offering mentorship to young entrepreneurs in the congregation.

Legal and Ethical Considerations: Touch on the importance of integrity in business:

- Ensuring all practices comply with laws and regulations.
- Addressing potential conflicts between faith-based values and secular business norms.
- Handling situations where your faith might impact business decisions (e.g., working on Sundays).

TEASERS

Based on our outlook on Jochebed, Moses mother. Let's take a look on how well we have learnt.

1. What divine calling is filled with immense joy and blessing, according to the Bible?
2. Who is the remarkable example of motherhood in the Bible mentioned in Exodus 2:1-10 and 6:20?
3. What selfless act did Jochebed, Moses' mother, risk to save her son's life?
4. What virtues did Jochebed demonstrate by trusting God despite the danger to her child?
5. How did Jochebed show courage and initiative in protecting her son?
6. What qualities did Jochebed exhibit by recognizing the significance of Moses' life and taking steps to ensure his safety and future?
7. How did Jochebed's actions and faith shape the destiny of her son, Moses, and what legacy did she establish?

Centred:
A Roadmap
for Couples & Marriage

God meant marriage to be enjoyed and not to be endured.

If you are enduring in your marriage, it is important that you know that it is not God's will.

God designed and planned marriage to be pleasurable, enjoyable and a blessing.

"Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labor. (Ecclesiastes 4:9).

The first thing to do to enjoy your marriage is to revert to God and to His manual, the bible.

Ephesians 5:22-33 and 1 Peter 3:1-8 are highly recommended. They are the inspired practical guides to enjoying your marriage and home.

As it takes two people to fight, it also takes two people to work out things in a marriage.

Every good and exemplary marriage is the product of a husband and his wife unreservedly committed to making the marriage union better.

People are working on what is working.

If you are determined to put the word of God to work, your life and marriage shall be transformed.
