HERMON
CHRISTIAN CENTRE

A weekly publication of HERMON CHRISTIAN CENTRE

Sunday, March 17, 2024

Pearly Beloved,
Glad you can join us again this week.

The year is already racing and we should be outrunning it.

How are you doing with your faith goals? It can be helpful to listen or watch again those sermons I preached earlier in the year about faith goals and first-fruits. Remember, faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God.

Also, gym up your spiritual muscles and capacity by reading the Bible daily. This will build you up. The Bible plan next page is a great help to make it easier for you.

There is also the free resource of HERMON DEVOTIONAL. It will enrich you with godly wisdom and inspiration to face and conquer each day. The link to the daily devotionals is also next page.

Lastly, this will be a beautiful week. Flow with the teachings on righteousness and good things find you in Jesus name.

Sunday Summary:

RICH AND SUCCESSFUL BY RIGHTEOUS MEANS

God desires His children to prosper financially (as stated in 2 Corinthians 8:9 and Galatians 3:14), but many believers struggle to embrace this truth. Nonetheless, there are three key principles every believer should remember:

1. It is God's will for us to be rich.
2. It is God's will for us to have good success.
3. It is God's will for us to have eternal life.

Why is financial prosperity important for God's children? Consider the following reasons:

1. Without money, you would stumble in your service to God (Proverbs 30:7).
2. You can't solve certain things without money (James 2:16-17).
3. It is through prosperity that God's Word can be shared around the world (Zechariah 1:17).
4. We are to experience the blessings of Abraham because we are his children by faith.

Given our covenant connection to Abraham, how do we incorporate these principles into our lives?

1. We must be working. We cannot be idle (2 Thessalonians 3:10).
2. We must do our work with all our might and not half-heartedly (Ecclesiastes 9:10).

Jacob exemplifies diligence and faithfulness in work, despite being cheated. From his example, we can learn:

1. He was faithful in another man's business (Genesis 31:6-7).
2. He was hardworking (1 Corinthians 15:10, Proverbs 12:24).
3. He had integrity (Genesis 31:36 - 41).
4. He gave tithes (Genesis 28: 10 - 22).

It takes only an idea that God gives for our lives to change but it will only come after we have been found faithful in another man's business.

Testimonies

I thank God for His deliverance. During prayers 2 Sundays back, I suddenly saw a strange creature approaching to attack me and at the same time, a word of knowledge came through Papa - describing the same creature and cancelled every attack of the enemy.

I also thank God for His deliverance on my daughter and niece. The fan in their room suddenly caught fire, but miraculously, the fire cut off just before it got to the main switch. I just thank God for stopping what could have been a disaster.

Sis Eliana

I thank God for His healing. I felt a sharp pain in my knee just before the midweek service on Wednesday. However, the word of knowledge came about God healing pain in the knee at the close of the service, and I was instantly healed.

Daily Devotional

At the end of any movie, a roll call of the cast and production is displayed. It shows the names and roles of everyone who took part in the movie. Apart from many other reasons, this is done to acknowledge and to give each one credit and deserved mention.

Deuteronomy 8:18 says: "But you shall remember the LORD thy God: for it is He who gives you the power to get wealth, that He may establish the covenant which He swore to the fathers, as it is this day" (KJV). This verse is important because we tend to forget, especially when we have eaten and are full.

We would now begin to think that we arrived where we are because we worked harder or are smarter than others. Whatever you have comes from God. You laboured but if God did not give increase to your labours, it would have yielded nothing.

"Paul planted; Apollos watered, but God gave the increase" (1 Corinthians 3:6). Remember to acknowledge God, give Him the credit, and give Him all the glory. As you do, He will increase your wealth and blessings.

Mid-Week Sermon

THE RIGHTEOUS QUOTA

The concept of righteousness encompasses both quantity and quality. When God revealed the future to Abraham regarding his descendants and the land they would inherit, He noted that the sins of the people were not yet complete, indicating that the land couldn't be possessed at that time (Genesis 15:16).

Before passing judgment on any nation, God provides warnings repeatedly. There exists a requirement for righteous individuals before God executes judgment, as seen in the case of Sodom and Gomorrah's destruction (Genesis 18:17-33).

Understanding the righteous quota involves four key pillars:

1. God actively seeks righteousness on earth (Isaiah 26:8).
2. Righteousness serves as a deterrent to God's judgment (Genesis 7:1, Ezekiel 18:21-23, Jonah 3:1-10).
3. The righteous act as the preserving salt of the earth (2 Corinthians 2:14, Matthew 5:13).
4. The quality and consistency of one's righteousness are essential for enduring until the end (Matthew 10:22, 2 Peter 2:4-7).

In conclusion, righteousness is not only a matter of quantity but also of quality and consistency. The presence of righteousness tempers god's judgment, and it is through righteousness that individuals are preserved and endure. Therefore, understanding and upholding righteousness is crucial in navigating God's divine plans and judgments.
